Subj Fixing the pay of the Sewing Mistress, Municipal Deaf and Dumb School, Bglre at Rs 25/- per mensem

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. 45. C 392/46/47, dated 9-9-46 on the above subject I am directed to state that the Director of Public Instruction has resolved that prior to the general revision of pay of primary school teachers with effect from 1-7-41, there were some posts of Sewing mistresses in some of the primary Govt Schools and that these posts were merged with those of general subject teachers and the minimum pay of a servant in a primary school whether for needle work or poor teaching general subjects, is now Rs 20- p M

It is also seen that the Qualification required for the post of a Sewing Mistress in a Primary School is a certificate of having completed the primary IV Year Course, combined with a pass in the Examination in Needle work and embroidery at the Vocational Institute for Women, Mysore

I am to enquire whether Sri Sujia B. Sewing Mistress possesses the above Qualifications and whether it would not meet the requirements of the case, if her pay is fixed at Rs 20- p M instead of Rs 25 per mensem.

I have the honour
